FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

OMNI DATA RETRIEVAL RECEIVES NAPBS PROVIDER EXAM CERTIFICATE OF COMPLETION

Omni Demonstrates Comprehensive Understanding of the National Association of Professional Background Screeners Provider Guidelines

Lakeville, Minn. -- (March 2010) -- Omni Data Retrieval, the leading nationwide provider of reliable criminal record research, has received a Certificate of Completion for the National Association of Professional Background Screeners (NAPBS) Research Providers Exam. Omni Data Retrieval's president, Scott Maloney, earned the certificate by exhibiting a thorough understanding of the NAPBS Criminal Research Provider Guidelines, which focuses on industry-certified research methods and pertinent legal requirements.

NAPBS created these guidelines to equip Research Providers with procedures that help ensure search accuracy and compliance with local, state and federal regulations. Omni Data Retrieval is one of nineteen companies with representatives that have successfully completed the exam.

"We are proud to have earned the Certificate of Completion for the NAPBS Providers Exam," said Maloney. "Earning this certification demonstrates our continuous commitment to delivering the best research solutions to our clients."
